APRIL 2024

"Friends together working, caring and sharing. . .

Meeting the challenge of change"

APRIL

Looks like we will be starting off with a wet April and looking forward to all the flowers in May.

April we celebrate National Library Week and provide lunch for the Poway Library staff in appreciation of their excellent service to the community. Meeting begins at 11:00 AM with lunch in the Poway Library Meeting Room.

We will be ordering fried chicken and potato salad and cole slaw. Please plan to join in and bring a dish to share. This is an event much appreciated by the library staff.

Also this month we will be participating in the Volunteer Fair sponsored by the city. It is on Saturday, April 20th in Old Poway Park. The event runs from 9:00 AM to 1:00 PM. Please let Joye know if you want to help.

Just three days later is the annual Palomar District Convention at California Center for the Arts. Rachele, Barbara and Joye have already signed up to go. All members are welcome and encouraged to attend.

We close the month with our Old-Fashioned Friendship Tea on Sunday, April 28th. We need volunteers to set a table. Be sure to invite friends, neighbors and relatives to join in the fun and help us continue to provide for our philanthropies.

As always please bring items for our various projects and your volunteer time sheets for March.

UPSTAIRS AT POWPAC

Ordinary People continues at PowPAC through April 14th. Show times are Friday and Saturday at 8:00 PM and Sundays at 2:00 PM. There is also a 2:00 PM performance on Saturday April 13th. Several members attended on opening night and were very impressed with the performance.

"I regard the theatre as the greatest of all art forms, the most immediate way in which a human being can share with another the sense of what it is to be a human being."

Oscar Wilde

*"There is no glory in star or blossom till looked upon by a loving eye.
There is no fragrance in April breezes till breathed with joy as they wander by."*

William Cullen Bryant

"April weather, rain and sunshine both together."

FRIENDS OF POWAY SENIORS

The April 10 That's Sew Crafty project is a floral wreath. The cost is 3.00.

You won't want to miss All That Jazz with the Third Coast Jazz Band. Menu for the day is: Chicken Parmesan, Pesto Noodles, vegetables, bread stick and ice cream. This will be a well attended event so don't delay in making a lunch reservation.

And enjoy a free movie on April 18 along with popcorn. The selection is Past Lives.

Don't want to cook? Tasty meals are provided Monday through Friday with a reservation that must be made in advance. The cost is $5.00 for those over 50. The menu is available on line at poway.org/olderadults or you can pick one up at the Mickey Cafagna Community Center.

See the website for other programs offered.

FROM THE DESK OF YOUR DEAN

Happy April 2024 to everyone! I hope that you all have successfully survived the very rainy year that we have had so far, and that you enjoyed a blessed Easter!

Our next meeting will be held on Tuesday April 9 in the Poway Library Meeting Room, where our club will provide and share lunch with the staff. It is always a treat to meet with our library staff, spend time with them, and hear about their programs and achievements. Please make a special effort to attend this meeting.

Unfortunately, we were unable to have a Trail Walk on our adopted "The Pond Trail" during March, because of all the rain and muddy soil. It would be great to be able to plan a group Trail Walk in April. This is a great project, and it is so nice to have several members doing it together! We always notice other people enjoying this beautiful site, so it is a rewarding experience to see others appreciating it! Please let me know when you are available in April.

The City of Poway has scheduled a Volunteer Fair in Old Poway Park for Saturday April 20. Poway Woman's Club will have a booth there to share information about our club and what we do in our community.

Palomar District Convention will be held on Tuesday April 23 at California Center for the Arts Escondido. This is a great way to get together with other Federation members. All members are invited to attend. Please let Joye know right away if you would like to participate.

Our Old Fashioned Friendship Tea is scheduled for Sunday April 28. We all need to participate in this very important event. Be sure to invite people to attend and please help in every way that you can.

Please continue to collect items for our ongoing projects, such as infant items for Gently Hugged, school supplies, and dental hygiene products, as well as items to donate to Fisher House

Remember to keep up with your great work and keep track of your volunteer hours and donations!

Take care and stay safe and healthy!

Rachelle

WHO AM?

*I am a little thing with a big meaning
 I help everybody,
 I unlock doors, open hearts, do away with prejudice.,
 I create friendship and goodwill.
 I inspire respect and admiration.
 Everybody loves me.
 I bore nobody.
 I violate no laws.
 I cost nothing.
 Many have praised me, none have condemned me.
 I am pleasing to everyone,
 I am useful every moment of the day.
 I am COURTESY,*

“All doors open to courtesy.”
